

Clery Crime Alert Burglary

On Thursday, December 26, 2024, at 11:54 a.m. a burglary occurred at 502 West 122nd Street, at the Morningside Campus.

The complainants, both non-affiliate contract workers, had their tool bags with tools removed from the basement storage room. A video review shows the subject entering the basement through an unsecured basement door and exiting the same way with the tools.

The suspect is the same individual who committed a similar crime on December 19, 2024, at 506 West 122nd Street.

The suspect is described as male presenting with a dark complexion, a thin build, and a salt-and-pepper moustache and beard, wearing black jeans, a black jacket, a black hooded sweatshirt, and black winter gloves.

Safety Tips

- Do not allow others to “piggyback” behind you into a secure location.
- Do not buzz people into a building unless you know who they are and what they are doing.
- Please make sure to secure the door behind you when entering and exiting a building.

Disclaimer: Clery Crime Alerts (Timely Warning Notifications) are distributed pursuant to the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Crime Statistics Act. Columbia University is required to alert the campus community when certain crimes occur in our Clery Act defined campuses that represent a serious or continuous threat to the community.
