

Crime Informational – Bike Larceny

On June 15, 2019 at approximately 1:04 AM in front of 419 West 119th Street, a Non-Affiliate had their bike stolen by the unknown individual in the photos below. The individual pulls on the cable lock that secured the bike to the bike rack causing the cable to break. The individual was last seen riding the bike north bound on Morningside Drive. If the individual is seen or their identity is known please call 911 and Public Safety at 212 854-5555.

Remember to properly secure your bicycle by locking the frame and tire to a secure bike rack using non-cable type locking devices.
