

Crime Informational – Bike Larceny

On July 10, 2019 at approximately 6:00 PM, the unknown individual in the photo below stole two bicycles. The first bicycle was stolen from in front of 435 W. 116th Street (Law School) when the person cut through a cable type bicycle lock. The second bicycle was stolen from in front of 430 W. 116th Street when the person removed the bike frame from the front tire. The individual was last seen riding south bound on Morningside Drive. If the individual is seen or their identity is known please call Public Safety at 212 854-5555.

Remember to properly secure your bicycle by locking the frame and tire to a secure bike rack using non-cable type locking devices.
