

Clery Crime Alert Attempted Robbery

On Friday, May 2, 2025, at 7:03 am, an attempted robbery occurred inside of the Chase Bank at 2824 Broadway, at the Morningside Campus.

The complainant, a Columbia University employee, stated that they were withdrawing cash from the ATM vestibule when an unknown individual attempted to take the cash from them. A struggle ensued inside the bank but no money was taken from the victim.

The incident was reported to Columbia University Public Safety on the same date at 7:30 a.m. If you have any additional information about this incident, please contact the Department of Public Safety at 212-854-2797.

The suspect is male presenting with a dark complexion, a medium build, a shaved head, and a mustache. They were wearing eyeglasses, 1 red sneaker, 1 white sneaker, a blue Yankee sweatshirt, and green camouflage pants. There is no other information available at this time.

- Safety Tips
- Many banks now have security personnel in their vestibules during nonbusiness hours. Use only those vestibules whenever possible or wait until the bank opens.
 - If your bank does not have security personnel in their vestibules when you need cash, use an ATM at an open business like a bodega.
